1 eRA Commons Personal Profile Module

The Personal Profile module in Commons is the central repository of information for all Commons registered users. It is designed so that individual eRA system users hold and maintain ownership over the accuracy of their own profile information. This profile information is then integrated throughout eRA's systems and used for a variety of agency business such as peer review, application data, and trainee data.

You can delegate the authority to maintain your profile to other users within your institution.

The personal profile is divided into sections of information and includes:

- Name and ID. Personal information such as name, email, date of birth, citizenship status
- Demographics. Race, ethnicity, sex. Trainees are additionally asked about disadvantaged status and federal debt.
- Employment. Current and past employment history
- Reviewer Information. (only peer reviewers see this) Work address for those users serving as peer reviewers as well as honorarium information
- Trainee Information. (only trainees see this) Trainee permanent address for those with Trainee roles using the xTrain module
- Education. Degrees and post-graduate clinical training information
- Reference Letters. (principal investigators only) Data about letters of reference submitted to NIH
- Publications. (does not appear for all users) Access to MY NCBI, at which publications can be viewed
- xTRACT Information. (does not appear for all users) Provides a link to xTRACT module for trainees, participants, or scholars on a training grant, research education award, or institutional career development award, where you can update the training institution on subsequent educational activities.

NOTE: Depending on your Commons role, you might not have access to all sections of the Personal Profile.

1.1 Selecting a Profile to Edit

You can grant any active eRA Commons user the ability to enter your Personal Profile information by delegating PPF authority. If you have been designated with this authority, you must select which profile you wish to access.

After selecting the Personal Profile tab from the Commons menu, you will be instructed to choose a profile for editing.

Select a name from the Profile to Edit drop-down list and click the Select Profile button. The profile of your selected person displays and changes made will be reflected on that profile.

To switch profiles, select the Personal Profile tab again and choose a different profile from the list.

Next to each link is a status indicator, providing a visual indication of whether all required fields for that section are complete. A green check indicates that the information is complete, while a red X means that information is missing. The status indicators are updated each time you save the personal profile. Clicking a link opens the corresponding section of the personal profile in a read-only view mode.

The links displayed in the left column vary depending on your user role. Not all profile sections are available for all Commons users. If you are affiliated with multiple institutions... and hold different roles at each, your profile will display the sections applicable for all roles across affiliations.

Update and Access Information:

- Profile Updated: system displays date when the user last performed a save on the Personal Profile
- Change your password: Date when password will expire plus a link for accessing the Change Password feature

eRA Service Desk Information

Includes the hours, phone numbers, and web address for contacting and creating a ticket for system support.

1.2.2 Main Section

The main section of the Personal Profile Summary displays profile information for each section, which you can expand or collapse by clicking the section header. Each section contains required information. If any required information is missing from a section, a message displays across the top of the screen as well as in the header for the incomplete section.
You can expand the sections for viewing (read-only) or editing:

- By clicking the View All button to expand all sections
- By clicking the section header to expand that individual section
- By clicking the Edit icon to update the section
IMPORTANT: All incomplete sections must be updated with the minimum required information in order to save the changes. If any sections remain incomplete, none of the changes will be saved. Click the Save All button once all sections are complete or click the Discard Changes button if you will update the information later.

1.2.3 Personal Profile Online Help

Click a question mark icon (’?’) to access content specific help. The help icons are located at the top of the Personal Profile Summary page as well as in each section heading and will open related topics.

Online help is accessible on the following page: https://www.dev.era.nih.gov/erahelp/commons/Default.htm#PPF_Help/00_PPF_landing.htm

1.3 What's the Difference Between View and Edit?

The Personal Profile provides you two ways to access your information: view mode and edit mode.

1.3.1 Viewing the Information in Your Profile

View mode provides a read-only summary of the information within a specific component of the profile. In view mode, not all fields are displayed. To view a section, click its heading. To expand all sections at once, click the View All button.

1.3.2 Editing the Information in Your Profile

You can edit any section of your profile by clicking a Edit button on the section's header. This actually unlocks all the entire profile for editing.
This expands the section and displays the fields for editing. You can then update the information as necessary.

Not all components can be edited. View-only components do not have an Edit button.

When you are done editing your profile, click the Save All button. This is the only method of saving the changes you've made. Clicking Save All keeps you in edit mode, so you can keep saving your work along the way. Navigating away from Personal Profile turns Edit mode off.

TIP: Hiding or closing sections of the profile is not the same thing as saving the information. If you navigate away from the personal profile, your changes will be lost. You must click the Save All button to save your changes!

If you wish to discard your changes, click the Discard Changes button, then click Yes from the confirmation popup. Keep in mind that any information you've added since the last time you clicked Save All will be discarded when you click the Discard Changes button!

Refer to the help topics for each individual profile component to see what fields are available for editing.

The Name and ID section of the Personal Profile lets you view, add, or update your:

The information initially displays as read-only.

It contains a link to the Secure Payee Registration System. For more information see the topic titled Submitting Banking Information in LRP online help.

As a security measure, after if you are updating the value of a previously entered email address, date of birth, and/or Social Security Number, Commons will send an email to the former (if changed) email address in a person’s Commons profile as an alert to the change. If you receive this email after making these changes, no further action is required. 7.5 Overview--Early Stage Investigator (ESI) Status

NOTE: This topic is duplicated between ESIE project and eRA_Commons>PPF>ESIE section, with some small differences. If you make changes to one, make corresponding changes to other.

An Early Stage Investigator (ESI) is a Program Director/Principal Investigator (PD/PI) who meets the following qualifications:

- Completed terminal research degree or end of post-graduate clinical training, whichever date is later, within the past 10 years, and
- Has not previously successfully competed as PD/PI for a substantial NIH independent research award.

ESI applications with meritorious scores will be prioritized for funding by the institute or center receiving the application.
Some ESIs will experience a lapse in their research or research training or periods of less than full-time effort during the 10-year ESI period. To accommodate such lapses, NIH will consider requests to extend the ESI period, on a case by case basis at the sole discretion of NIH.

Investigators should consult the FAQs, Section IV, Extension of Early State Investigator Status prior to submitting a request.

Extensions may be granted for the following reasons as described in NOT-OD-09-034:

- Childbirth
- Family Care Responsibilities
- Required Clinical Training for Degree
- Clinical Loan Repayment Requirements
- Disability or Illness
- Active Duty Military Service
- Natural or Other Disaster
- Public Health Emergency
- Other

Investigators can submit a request via an ESI Extension Request button in the Education section of the Personal Profile in eRA Commons. The PI must provide a justification for requesting the extension. NOTE: ESI buttons and information do NOT appear until and unless you click the Edit link for the Education pane.

NOTE: Only the PD/PI can request the ESI extension. Although filling out the Personal Profile can be delegated by the PI, the request for ESI extension cannot be delegated.

The information described in the request for ESI extension will be considered confidential and will be maintained under the Privacy Act record system SORN, 09-25-0036, "Extramural Awards". The individual submitting a request for ESI extension is responsible for providing true, accurate, and complete information.

!Early Stage Investigator (ESI) Status

If you are near your ESI Status end date, and you experienced a qualified event where you were unable to work, such as a natural disaster, you can apply for an extension of your ESI Status to cover the time period lost to the qualified event. See How to Access the Link for Requesting an ESI Extension.

When a decision is made regarding your request, you will receive an email at the email address specified in your eRA Commons account. In addition, the ESI indicator in your eRA Commons Account will change and the end date of your ESI status period will be modified to reflect the extension granted. In most cases it is expected that a decision will be made within a few weeks. 8 Reference Letters

If you have the PI role, you have access to the Reference Letters section of the Personal Profile.

The Reference Letters section contains a list of all reference letters received by NIH on your behalf. The information is read-only and cannot be changed. You cannot read the actual contents of the letter, only the date received, referee name, and the application which the letter supports.

NOTE: The Personal Profile does not provide access to the actual reference letters.

Click the Reference Letters section heading to see the section content.

The following read-only information displays for each letter received:

- Date Received
- Reference Letter From

9 Publications

eRA Commons has partnered with the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI) to link NCBI’s personal online tool, My NCBI, to Commons. My NCBI offers an online portal - My Bibliography - for users to maintain and manage a list of all their authored works, such as journal articles, manuscripts accepted for publication, books, and book chapters.

Click the Publications section heading to see the section content.

The Publications section of the personal profile provides links to the following:

- NIH Public Access website
- NIH Manuscript Submission System
- National Center for Biotechnology Information My NCBI tool

If you have the PI role, you have access to this section of the personal profile.

Publications that have a gold lock on them in your My NCBI bibliography cannot be removed from the RPPR. A gold lock (🔒) indicates that the award was associated with the publication through NIHMS. To delete a citation with a gold lock, contact the NIHMS help desk through their web form which is accessible at http://www.nihms.nih.gov/. Additional information and instructions are also available at the FAQ found here: "This award did not support this research".
9 The ORCID ID

The Open Researcher and Contributor ID (ORCID) ID is used within NIH and Grants.gov to relate publications to grants. You can associate your ORCID ID from the Commons Personal Profile module.

If no ORCID ID is connected to your profile, a link will be provided to start the process.

Click the Create or Connect your ORCID ID link and the ORCID site opens, letting you log in and connect your ID to your Commons profile or to set up an ORCID ID which can then be connected to your Commons profile. If you hover over the question mark icons for a field, a window will open with an explanation for that field.

NOTE: If you get an error from eRA Commons when attempting to link your ORCID ID, contact the eRA Service Desk. One common reason why this might not work is that you have two eRA Commons accounts, and the other account is already linked to the ORCID ID. The ORCID ID can be linked to only one Commons account. Also, to remove an ORCID, you must also contact the eRA Service Desk.
Once your ORCID ID has been created, click the Create or Connect your ORCID ID link in your Commons Personal Profile and log into ORCID. You will then be prompted to authorize NIH to access your personal ORCID profile (public information only).
The ORCID ID is an important identifier to enable transparent and trustworthy connections between individuals engaged in research, scholarship, and innovation activities and is tied to an individual researcher’s or contributor's name. More than six million ORCID IDs have been established worldwide to connect individuals to their professional information (such as publications, awards, affiliations, etc.) for references and citations. You are encouraged to complete your ORCID profile and connect the resulting ID to your Commons account.

For more information regarding ORCID IDs please visit https://orcid.org.

Once you have successfully linked your ORCID ID to your Commons account, it will be shown on your Personal Profile.
